

United States Navy Biography →

QM2 (SW) Anthony G. Bentley
United States Navy
USS FARRAGUT (DDG 99)

QM2 Bentley is from the small town of Grants, New Mexico. He spent most of his formative years in San Antonio, Texas where he met his husband and became a military spouse for five years. Once his spouse exited the service, QM2 enlisted to serve his country.

After graduating from NAVSTA Great Lakes Boot Camp with a promotion from QMSA to QMSN for serving as the divisional Yeoman, Bentley continued on to Quartermaster "A" School where he graduated as distinguished graduate and top of his class, and received another promotion to Petty Officer Third Class. A year later, he advanced to Petty Officer Second Class and in December of 2023 became an Enlisted Surface Warfare Specialist. Within his division, he is currently the Training Petty Officer and Work Center Supervisor. He is also a member of the Command Resilience Team and the president of the Second Class Petty Officers association onboard.